Meet four athletes in para sports. Kia who competes in snowshoe running and wants silver more than gold. Tyra and Rami who love soccer and are happy for any goal, no matter which team scores them. And Aje who goes to a try-out day and gets stuck! Even though he was just going to watch.

PIGLET'S BIGGEST WISH

Katrin Tõnisson + Reda Tomingas

Hardback / 210 x 255 mm / 32 pages

When Piglet was little, his biggest wish was to be a super pig. He wanted to be the fastest, strongest, and smartest. Alas, it didn't always work out that way. Then, his mom would kiss him on the forehead and say, "You did your very best. You're precious to me." Or his dad would pick him up and say, "You're brave and smart. You can succeed at anything you wish."

WHY DO YOU SURGE SO STRANGELY, MY HEART?

Kaja Meyer

Paperback / 165 x 240 mm / 80 pages

Kaja Meyer's book debut begins quietly and almost inconspicuously: the main character Worm is having breakfast in the dining room while a new day begins outside his window. But internally, he is plagued by a nameless pain for which even the sky knows no answer. Thus, Worm embarks on a journey that will bring more questions than certainties, more opaqueness than clarity.

READY AMERICA

Anna Haifisch

Paperback / 200 x 255 mm / 48 pages

Dogs in colorful sweatshirts, the glowing signs of a Vietnamese fast-food restaurant, solitary palm trees above the pavement: READY AMERICA takes us on a ride through a both strangely familiar and quite alien Los Angeles. With her unmistakable wit, Anna Haifisch highlights the idiosyncrasies of a country in which catastrophes seem just as ordinary as the sight of a coyote in the Hollywood Hills. The latest work of the award-winning cartoonist from Leipzig.
